THE first-ever election for members of the executive committee (exco) of the REIT Association of Singapore (Reitas) saw the injection of six new faces into the nine-member committee.

Aside from the six new members who join the committee, two new member firms – Suntec Reit and DBS – are also represented on the exco.

Group chief investment officer of Mapletree Investments Chua Tiow Chye will remain as president.

New members include vice-president Low Chee Wah, who is chief executive officer
